

The Catholic Diocese of Arlington's Peace and Justice Commission presents...

Race Relations: Educating to End Racism and Build Solidarity

Join a conversation about the role that race and diversity play in our society, in light of recent race-related events, topics and discussions.

Saturday, September 5, 2015

Marymount University

2807 N. Glebe Road, Arlington, VA 22207

9:00 a.m.—Mass with Bishop Loverde

Marymount Sacred Heart Chapel

10:00 a.m.—Program Begins

Reinsch Auditorium at Marymount

*Evangelization Formation Advocacy
Peace
&
Justice*

Keynote Speaker: Reverend Henry Sands, Associate Director, Native American Affairs, USCCB

Panelists: Deacon Al Turner, Retired Director, Office of Black Catholics, Archdiocese of Washington

Maria Hamm, Director, Hispanic Family Life and Leadership Development, Archdiocese of Washington

For questions or more information: peace@arlingtondiocese.org