

We will celebrate Dr. Seuss Day, also known as Read Across America Day, on Friday March 2nd.

Students will celebrate with their homeroom classes by creating a display that honors one of Dr. Seuss's famous books. The displays will be near the entrance of the school. You are invited to stop in and see the finished products on Friday March 2nd.

On Friday afternoon, students will gather to hear a classic Dr. Seuss story and enjoy a special snack! The winner of the Dr. Seuss display will also be announced.

Considering March 2nd is a Friday this year, students will not completely dress up for the occasion. However, if your child would like to bring Dr. Seuss accessories for after Mass, they are encouraged! Dr. Seuss hats, Fox on Sox (fun socks), Thing 1 and Thing 2 wigs, or even a 'Wocket in your pocket' are just some fun ideas for your child to sport. Additionally, please send your child with their favorite Dr. Seuss book so they can read it during the event! We can't wait to celebrate!
