"Let us love one another because love is from God"

It is an early edition of the Thursday newsletter because....

The Bidding Has Started!
The Sales Have Begun!

Everyone has the opportunity to purchase raffle tickets and bid on the silent auction baskets!

Hopefully you have taken a peak at the fabulous baskets that are available both for raffle and for auction. If you've not seen them, please visit the school's Facebook page for pictures and descriptions.

A hard copy of the pre-order / pre-bid form went home with your students on Tuesday just in case you will not be in attendance at Saturday's show.

You may also access the order form by here:

Raffle Ticker Order Form / Silent Auction Bid

You can also pay for raffle tickets online by clicking here!

If you pay online please notate this on your form.

You can also email your form to ptotreasurer@holyspiritflames.org and mention you have paid online.

Look for PTO Volunteers this afternoon prior to and during dismissal to purchase raffle tickets or to bid!

My hope is everyone will support the PTO with this fundraiser which directly benefits every student in the school.

(Below is just a sampling of what is available!)

Thank you to those who attended Monday evening's "Celebrate Calm" presentation.

From the student presentations during the day, to the faculty presentation in the afternoon, to the parent presentation in the evening - it was all informative and entertaining.

Thank you to the PTO for sponsoring these nationally known speakers!

Holy Thursday, April 18th is an 11:30 dismissal day and there is NO afternoon extended day. We are off from school completely beginning on Good Friday, April 19th and return from break on Monday, April 29th.

I prayerfully hope that you and your children will participate in all of the Triduum events that Holy Spirit Parish or your own parish offer. Holy Week and all that it entails is the foundation of our Faith - we are an Easter people.

We will continue the item collection for the Democratic Republic of Congo throughout the Lenten season. Please see the flyer for information on the types of items that are being sought.
