Holy Spirit School
Inspiring Minds/Igniting Hearts
2023/2024
"Faithfulness"

Ready to take a breath this weekend?

Thank you to everyone who was able to be at the two Back to School Night events this week. It is important for the teachers to connect with parents in order to continue to get to know the students in their classes.

A reminder that tomorrow, Friday, September 1st is an early dismissal day for everyone and that there is NO afternoon Extended Day. This is Labor Weekend and there is no school on Monday, September 4th and no school for students on Tuesday, September 5th as there is professional development for the teachers.

It was mentioned last night, but the meeting for the Middle School parents regarding The Gift of Human Sexuality program is Wednesday, September 6th. This is a 7:00pm Zoom meeting; watch for an email from Mrs. Evans with the link. Remember this is an OPT-IN program and we must have on file the permission form that was provided in your Family Packet.

The Band and Strings programs are gearing up; students had the opportunity to meet the instructors and to see some of the instruments yesterday. Information is below regarding the Strings program and there is a parent meeting for the Band program on Wednesday, September 6th at 6:00 pm in the cafeteria.

There is also information below for students in grades 3-8 who would like to sing in the Mass Choir.

The Fall Yearbook pictures, both individual and class, will be taken on Tuesday, September 12th. All students should be in their dress uniform (not PE uniform) regardless of whether they have PE that day. Listen for further instructions from Coach Gregas and the homeroom teachers on how PE dress will be handled that day.

Afterschool activities will begin to ramp up over the next few weeks. Be sure that if your child is participating in an activity that you arrive on time to pick them up. Students who are not picked up at the time designated by the moderator will be checked into Extended Day and charges will accrue.

Mr. Anson Groves is now the Director of Youth Ministry for the parish (in addition to being the Director of Religious Education). He is getting his schedule set and programs organized, but know that many of the traditional programs (like Militia Immaculata) will return.

Thank you to everyone for your continued patience during the arrival and dismissal processes - we are getting in the swing of it all! Especially in the lower lot, please be sure that you give yourself enough space to turn your car so that it is as straight as possible in the line. It makes it difficult to maximize the space in the lot when cars are at an angle. I know sometimes it may not seem necessary to drive to the top of the lot just to swing around and drive back down in the lane, but there really is a "method to the madness" and I appreciate your cooperation.

I hope you have a terrific long weekend. I am sure most everyone is ready for a small breather as we get accustomed to the rigor of daily school life.

Did you create your own Holy Moment this week? Did you challenge yourself to reach out to someone who impacted your life and let them know?

We hope you did and that you felt the grace that came from that interaction.

As mentioned, each Thursday this note will contain the Matthew Kelly, Holy Moments videos that he recorded during Lent of 2023. These relate to the Holy Moments book.

Holy Spirit School Strings Program

The program is designed for students from 3rd to 8th grade who wish to study a string instrument (violin, viola, cello). The curriculum incorporates group lessons, master classes, ensemble playing and performance opportunities. During the first year of study, your child will learn the basics of playing his/her instrument. We focus on holding the instrument and bow with the correct posture, as well as producing a relaxed, resonant tone. They will also learn the basics of reading music and taking care of their instrument.

Dr. Hwan-Ah Lee is the program director.

Please see the attached letter for more information.

Thoughtful Moments

St. Padre Pio
 Born to farmers in 1887 in Italy, Francesco Fogione joined the Capuchin Friars. In 1918, Fr. "Pio" received the five wounds of Our Lord's Passion (stigmata) in his body. Renowned for his preaching, holiness, and charity, thousands sought him for Confession and spiritual guidance. His famous advice, "Pray, hope, and don't worry," consoles and inspires many today. Even in his suffering, he cared for others' spiritual and physical well-being, founding a hospital that continues to operate today.

Raising good stewards
 Stewardship means demonstrating that all we have and all we are belong to God. Children can be given opportunities to practice stewardship by participating in service projects, giving away excess possessions, and especially by giving to the Church. Our offerings enable our parishes to provide ministry to us and our communities.

"I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you" (Psalm 122:5).

Four healthy habits for a new school year

As people of faith, we know that our lasting happiness is found in a relationship with God. Help children develop these four soul healthy habits in the new school year as a key to finding lifelong joy and lasting fulfillment in God-filled lives.

Fortitude strengthens us to follow Christ faithfully. Model fortitude for your children by offering many saints as role models, helping children spot how God works in your lives, praying aloud together in good times and bad, consulting Scripture prior to acting.

Temperance properly prioritizes our desires. Good food, fashionable clothes, the latest technology are all blessings, but can't be a focus. As an antidote, reserve a day each week for penance - Fridays. From tradition - to help increase appreciation for those blessings. Spend extra time in family prayer, set limits for screens, abstain from meat or favorite foods. We deny ourselves small pleasures so we can appreciate the greatest Gift.

Justice encourages us to give others what they're owed. Attending Sunday Mass is just because we owe God our worship. Others deserve respect because all are made in God's image. Treat everyone with respect, honor, and charity, and children will follow your example.

Prudence is a virtue that helps us consider decisions from a practical and Catholic viewpoint - choosing friendships, activities, and entertainment that flow from our Catholic values.

Why Do Catholics Do That?
Why do Catholics bless themselves with holy water?

Blessing ourselves with holy water before entering a Catholic church recalls the washing ritual of the Old Testament Jews who cleaned themselves by bathing before entering the holy temple. In addition, when we bless ourselves with holy water, we recall our baptism and renew our promises to God to live our faith. Because holy water is a sacramental, we receive graces when we use it with the right disposition, such as strengthening us against temptation and removing venial (small) sins.

Your $15 donation will help us purchase a gift card to Barnes and Noble bookstores, which are located at each of NVCC's campuses, and we are creating 60 care packages.

You can make your donation using our ParishGiving program. You can also drop off a check at the parish office, but the check must indicate GREAT EXPECTATIONS on the memo line.

Taking a Stand

Armed with charity and unity, the Knights of Columbus has long responded to attacks against the Catholic faith and human dignity

By Supreme Knight Patrick E. Kelly / July 2023

The Knights of Columbus cannot take up every fight... But 2 million Catholic men can make an enormous difference where it matters most — always through prayer and often through action.

Interested in becoming a Holy Spirit Knight of Columbus? Contact Grand Knight Don Pedersen at dpedersenkof@gmail.com

Who are the Knights?

Last month's opening Mass of our annual Organizational Meeting of State Deputies was followed by a beautiful eucharistic procession.

Knights of Columbus leaders and state chaplains from throughout the Order participated, as our supreme chaplain carried Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament up and down New Haven's historic Hillhouse Avenue.

Home to St. Mary's Church, the birthplace of the Order, Hillhouse is lined by majestic elm trees, stately homes and Yale University buildings. The procession was a peaceful expression of piety and unity, yet the scene and setting also evoked the long history of tension between our Catholic faith and those who fight to keep Catholics out of the public square.

In July 1879 — less than three years before Blessed Michael McGivney founded the Knights — a New York Times article dismissively labeled St. Mary's as "an unprofitable church." The headline read, "How an Aristocratic Avenue Was Blotched by a Roman Church Edifice."

Much has changed in the past 144 years, but much remains the same. Anti-Catholic bigotry may look different today, but there can be no doubt that it is still prevalent — and even on the rise. As one historian put it, today's anti-Catholicism is "the last acceptable prejudice." The attacks go beyond anonymous acts of vandalism or pernicious online commentary; they are aired on national television and publicly expressed by leaders in politics and business.

A recent instance was the abhorrent decision of the Los Angeles Dodgers to honor a group called the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops noted that the group's "lewdness and vulgarity in mocking our Lord, His Mother and consecrated women cannot be overstated." The Dodgers, when challenged on the decision, initially backed down and disbanded them. Then, under pressure, the team not only renewed the invitation, but also apologized to the offensive group.

This is deeply disappointing — and ironic in the extreme. The same people who cry out for tolerance often demonstrate complete intolerance for Catholics and other Christians.

The U.S. Bishops, in denouncing the Dodgers' decision, said it was more than offensive; it was blasphemous. As such, they asked Catholics to pray the Litany of the Sacred Heart of Jesus as an act of reparation. Of course, we Knights spread the word to do just that. And beyond praying, our brothers in California were among many local Catholics who expressed their displeasure to the Dodgers organization.

This latest stand against bigotry is in keeping with the Order's history. A century ago, the Knights prominently opposed the Ku Klux Klan; countered legislative attempts to destroy the Catholic school system in the United States; published books on the contributions of black, Jewish and German Americans; and spoke out against the persecution of the Church in Mexico.

The Knights of Columbus cannot take up every fight. We must choose our battles wisely, following Christ's admonition to be "shrewd as serpents and simple as doves" (Mt 10:16). But 2 million Catholic men can make an enormous difference where it matters most — always through prayer and often through action. This includes educating ourselves and others; engaging in respectful conversation; and making our voices heard in the voting booth and through petitions. Whatever the times might demand, the Knights of Columbus will continue to speak out and stand up for human dignity and the fundamental rights of all.

Vivat Jesus!
